	 Release pending trial, sentence, appeal or completion of sentence. (c) Other Factors:
	The defendant is an illegal alien and is subject to deportation.
	The defendant is a legal alien and will be subject to deportation if convicted.
	The Bureau of Immigration and Custom Enforcement (BICE) has placed a detainer with the U.S. Marshal. Other:
X (4)	The nature and seriousness of the danger posed by the defendant's release are as follows: While much of the defendant's criminal history in the Pretrial Services report belongs to his brother, Antonio, the Indictment charges the defendant with a series of methamphetamine distribution throughout 2010. The Indictment was returned on December 14, 2011, and an arrest warrant was issued. The fact of the Indictment and warrant were publicized on television and the defendant's family was aware of the warrant. There was no discernible effort on the family's part to have the defendant return to the United States. As such, they do not pose as suitable custodians for the defendant if he were released on conditions. The defendant remained in Mexico until he was arrested crossing the Mexican-American border in Arizona some four months later on April 11, 2012.
X (5)	Rebuttable Presumptions In determining that the defendant should be detained, the Court also relied on the following rebuttable presumption(s) contained in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)
_X	which the Court finds the defendant has not rebutted: _ (a) That no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of any other person and the community because the Court finds that the crime involves: (1) A crime of violence; or
	(2) An offense for which the maximum penalty is life imprisonment or death; or X (3) A controlled substance violation which has a maximum penalty of 10 years or more; or (4) A felony after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior offenses described in (1) through (3) above, and the defendant has a prior conviction for one of the crimes mentioned in (1) through (3) above which is less than five years old and which was committed
X	while the defendant was on pretrial release. (b) That no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community because the Court finds that there is probable cause to believe:
	X (1) That the defendant has committed a controlled substance violation which has a maximum penalty of 10 years or more.
	(2) That the defendant has committed an offense under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c) (uses or carries a firearm during and in relation to any crime of violence, including a crime of violence, which provides for an enhanced punishment if committed by the use of a deadly or dangerous weapon or device).

D. Additional Directives

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i)(2)-(4), the Court directs that:

- The defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal; and
- 2. The defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; and
- 3. That, on order of a court of the United States, or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

DATED: May 8, 2012.
